

Innovative Therapies for the Treatment of Skin Disorders

Almirall is a global biopharmaceutical company focused on skin health based in Barcelona. They collaborate with scientists and healthcare professionals to address patient's needs and make a difference in their lives. They invest in differentiated and ground breaking medical dermatology products to bring their innovative solutions to patients in need. Almirall is seeking partnering opportunities on new assets in research or preclinical development stages that could be useful for the treatment of dermatological diseases.

Approaches of Interest

The proposed new assets should:

- Target immuno-inflammatory pathways and/or be suitable for dermato-oncological or rare dermatological indications
- Involve any therapeutic modality such as small molecules, biologics or advanced therapies with a preference for systemic delivery of therapeutics
- Open to research on all skin diseases, e.g. atopic dermatitis, alopecia areata, psoriasis, vitiligo, autoimmune bullous diseases, epidermolysis bullosa, hidradenitis suppurativa, ichthyosis, non-melanoma skin cancer indications
- Research that could be repurposed for use in the treatment of these dermatological conditions is also of interest

Stage of Development

- Almirall are interested in opportunities in research from basic to early clinical stage, with a preference for late research and preclinical development stages
- Opportunities with some form of validation are of highest interest. For example, demonstrable strong scientific rationale, including in vitro and in vivo evidences of efficacy

Out of Scope

- Medical devices, late stage technologies and the repurposing of commercially available therapeutics
